SOLICITORS journal

It's convenient, it's flexible, it's responsive
it's everything you need to gain your CPD

Under the Solicitors Journal learning scheme you can obtain 75% of your CPD hours by just reading articles of interest in the Journal and then answering our multiple choice questions which are published every month. Ten questions correctly answered equals one hour's CPD – no other scheme is this geared towards your needs.

Key benefits to you:

- A wide range of topics and areas of law are covered – property, litigation, commercial, private client, crime and miscellaneous
- Saves you valuable time and money because you won't have to attend courses and conferences
- Very convenient and flexible, you can answer questions in your own time and gain your hours over a year or make up for lost hours
- Simple to operate – we do the administration and calculate your hours

Questions are based on clearly flagged articles and the weekly legal update section "Lawbrief" are set by solicitors with experience of practice and deal with what you need to know.
